

ArgMining 2020

7th Workshop on Argument Mining

Opening

December 13th, 2020

The first online edition

Due to the Covid-19 health crisis

Some statistics about ArgMining 2020

- 30 submissions received
- 13 different countries

Some statistics about ArgMining 2020

- 9 submissions accepted as full papers
- 2 submissions accepted as short papers
- 2 submissions accepted as demo papers

Acceptance rate: 43%

Main topics in ArgMining 2020

Argument mining on social media

Argument mining for the legal domain
(morality, ECHR)

Cleansing and assessing quality of argument corpora

Aspect-based AM and stance detection

Social biases in arguments

Style analysis of argumentative structures

Special thanks to

- ... the 36 members of the Program Committee for their excellent work in the rigorous review process and for their participation in the discussions concerning borderline papers.
- ... the whole ArgMining organising committee members not only for their support and advice but also generally for taking care of all the ArgMining initiatives.

Special thanks to

for the Best Paper Award

Best Paper Award Candidates

- Argument from Old Man's View: Assessing Social Bias in Argumentation by Maximilian Spliethöver and Henning Wachsmuth
- Style Analysis of Argumentative Texts by Mining Rhetorical Devices by Khalid Al Khatib, Viorel Morari and Benno Stein
- Creating a Domain-diverse Corpus for Theory-based Argument Quality Assessment by Lily Ng, Anne Lauscher, Joel Tetreault and Courtney Napoles
- ECHR: Legal Corpus for Argument Mining by Prakash Poudyal, Jaromir Savelka, Aagje Ieven, Marie Francine Moens, Teresa Goncalves and Paulo Quaresma

... and now let ArgMining 2020
begins!

Invited speaker

Marco Guerini

FONDAZIONE
BRUNO KESSLER

Counter Narrative Generation against Online
Hate Speech, Data and Strategies

